

An Overview

The Montana Ground Water Assessment Steering Committee

The Ground Water Assessment Steering Committee (Section 2-15-1523, MCA) consists of representatives from water agencies in state and federal government, and representatives from local governments and water user groups. The committee provides a forum through which units of state, federal, and local government can coordinate functions of ground-water research. There are four voting members, one from each: DNRC, DEQ, Dept of Ag, and; the Montana State Library. There are ex officio representatives from county, state and federal agencies, the Montana University System, agricultural water users, industrial water users, conservation districts and the development community.

The committee meetings are open to the public. The committee is responsible for ranking and prioritizing water projects nominated to the GWIP and for overseeing certain aspects of the Ground Water Assessment program.
