

SYMPOSIUM

Montana Bureau of Mines and Geology
October 7–9, 2020
Butte, Montana

Join professional and amateur mineralogists, geologists, and miners as they share their knowledge of mineral deposits and stimulate interest in pursuing new studies and discoveries.

The Montana Bureau of Mines and Geology is pleased to host the 6th Annual Montana Mining and Mineral Symposium on October 7–9 at Montana Tech, located in historic uptown Butte, Montana.

FEATURED EVENTS

Wednesday, Oct. 7th

Elkhorn Field Trip: Travel north of Butte to the Elkhorn mining district and examine gold skarn mineralization and the remaining town of Elkhorn. Learn the area's unique history and geology. There will be opportunities to collect vesuvianite, axinite, and other minerals related to skarn deposits.

Informal Meet & Greet at the Mineral Museum after the field trip with hors d'oeuvres and a no-host bar.

Thursday, Oct. 8th

Oral presentations (including lunch) will be followed by an evening Poster Session at Montana Tech, with hors d'oeuvres and a no-host bar.

Friday, Oct. 9th

Enjoy oral presentations (including lunch) and lab tours followed by an evening Map Chat at the Butte Brewery. Enjoy great beers and pizza from the Butte Brewing Company, meet our MBMG geologists, and learn about their current mapping projects. Bring your mineral samples and try to stump our geologists!
